Kari Hohne teaches readers and app users worldwide how nature's laws of success can unleash greater human potential. As a pioneer of self-help technology, her apps are top sellers at iTunes and Amazon, and Alexa ranks her website www.cafeausoul.com in the top 8 percent of websites worldwide.

She is an expert on comparative symbolism and the eastern and western archetypes behind the I Ching, tarot, dreams, astrology and myths, and is passionate about keeping ancient wisdom relevant to modern times.

Hohne is the author of Tao te Ching: The Poetry of Nature, a popular translation of the Tao te Ching a fundamental Taoist text, and The Essential I Ching: 64 Degrees of Nature's Wisdom, a translation of an ancient Chinese philosophical and divination text and the oldest of the Chinese classics.

She has four decades experience analyzing dreams for people around the world, and joined philosopher Ken Wilber as the dream expert at Spiritual Technology Summit 2.0 in 2017. Her pioneering work in dream research explores the common “hero” cycles of conflict, cause and resolution that take the dreamer on an adventure of self-discovery. This type of dream analysis is explored in Hohne’s dream interpretation books The Mind’s Mirror: Dream Dictionary and The Mythology of Sleep: The Waking Power of Dreams.

Additionally, Hohne is the author of Nothing Bad Happens in Life: Nature’s Way of Success, which explores nature as the ultimate teacher of how to overcome obstacles, and The Common Archetypes of Tarot: Dreams, Myths and the Hero's Journey, which examines the ancient western stories that inspired the archetypes of Tarot, and how we can gain valuable insight into their deeper meaning.

Hohne’s work is rooted in the mission to make self-help available through technology. At Cafe Au Soul, Hohne offers a virtual database of dream symbols, ancient oracles and archetypal information. The I Ching oracle and online dream dictionary at Cafe Au Soul are both top ranked in the world for Google searches.

She developed the top selling app, Way of Dreams – Dream Dictionary, which allows users to type their entire dream into a cloud to receive and interpretation. Approached by Amazon to build a similar app for Kindle, it is consistently featured in the top Lifestyle apps on iTunes and at Amazon.

Hohne also launched Inspired Natural Wisdom – an app filled with inspirational insights revealed by nature, and reads like an encyclopedia of nature facts, with photos, a diary, audio affirmations and workbook style exercises. She also created Affirmations Inspired by Nature, an app that inspires users to overcome challenges and negative thought patterns. These apps all received “New and Noteworthy” status at iTunes.

Hohne is also experienced as a consultant, coaching businesses toward sustainable profitability using nature as a role model. Her work in dream interpretation connects to her work in the business world as well, using the genius of dreams as the inspiration to juxtapose and explore business strategies in ways that lead to change and innovation. She has consulted with technology companies, non-profits, hospitality and other corporations.

She worked in the early days of the dot-com revolution building realtor technology in the Silicon Valley, and built one of the first aggregated MLS platforms and mobile search technology for real estate. She currently builds Saas technology at SDBX Studio.

True to the power of creativity that she teaches, Hohne also produces music under the name Get Tribal, and composes transcendental music with the same passion she brings forward in translating ancient texts. Get Tribal has been nominated by Zone Music Reporter for Best New Artist, Best World Album and Best Chill Groove Album for top world radio airplay.

Her education includes psychology, physics and business. She resides in Lake Tahoe, Calif. For more info, please visit www.cafeausoul.com.

Book Reviews

The Essential I Ching: 64 Degrees of Nature's Wisdom* 5 Stars

"Not just an interpretation but helpful to understand life's processes."

"In 30 years of studying iching this is the most comprehensive insightful set of interpretations I have ever seen I have ordered extra for friends this will be my main reference it's worth having."

The Mythology of Sleep: The Waking Power of Dreams* 5 Stars

"This book breaks new ground in the realm of Joseph Campbell's work on archetypes and the hero's journey. Reminiscent of Carl Jung, the author uses the backdrop of world mythology to present common dream themes or "cycles" that appear in all dreams. She brings forward Freud's earlier writings on dream analysis, seamlessly unifying their ideas. Through actual examples, the reader is guided through the process of dream analysis, although this book also stands as an excellent anthology of world mythology."

Tao te Ching: The Poetry of Nature* 5 Stars

"Like most followers of the Tao Te Ching, I have read many translations, and in one way or another enjoyed them all. So it is amazing to me that there could be this new version by Kari Hohne, which seems at every point to match or exceed the others. The author has the benefit certainly of a 140 years of published English editions preceding her own, and she has not wasted that gift. She takes the work back to the original, lets go of her own agenda, and writes English with a vocabulary rooted in the heart - that is the way of the Tao and the best translations also. She is right up there with Ursula K. Le Guin, Arthur Waley, Stephen Mitchell, and Ellen M. Chen. There is also a fine, two-part introduction, as well as a separate section with examples of Taoist poetry, which helps to locate the Tao Te Ching in the realm of spiritual art, as much as religious philosophy."

Nothing Bad Happens in Life: Nature's Way of Success* 4.5 Stars

"Nothing Bad Happens in Life: Nature's Way of Success should be the next book on every reader's list. Kari Hohne has taken the ancient lessons of the I Ching, which liken the incredible strength of the human spirit to the power of nature, and has spun these lessons into a delightful narrative. I would recommend Nothing Bad Happens in Life to anyone who feels a connection with the natural world."

*"Very thought provoking and detailed, this author uses very colorful metaphors to remind us, how in reality, we are part of nature in its essence, and that we should be "learning to flow upon the great river of life." Highly informative, and eloquently written, I recommend this to anyone who is looking for answers, and for those who'd like to take a pro-active stance in their own success. *****5 Stars*****"*

The Mind's Mirror: Dream Dictionary and Translation Guide

"I use your website all of the time and was happy to see that you put it all in a book! I bought 5 for my friends. Your interpretations are the best out there."

What Clients Say

"I just want to thank you ... Your I Ching pages are amongst the loveliest I've seen online. The care you've given to understanding each hexagram ... the illustrations, quotes ... your understanding of the changing lines ... It's a treasure. I've been a student of this oracle since 1981 and am always on the lookout for a fresh, unique perspective ... and here is one." - USA

"Thank you so much for that powerful interpretation – I like the methodical way you unpack each significant fact in the dream as you go along." - USA

"Thank YOU Kari for this short but eye-opening opportunity. I am shocked at what such a short course has opened up in me and what it has revealed to me about my life." Spain

"I'm amazed at the issues I was able to work through with the help of my dreams. You are brutally honest and to the point in drawing the issues out of me, but your techniques work! Thank you." Mexico

"When you describe the dream, you know what I am facing now. It is the situation exactly. Thank you for the dream interpretation." -Germany

"With gratitude for your kindness, Thank you so much for your response! This is really insightful... I'm blown away! I completely understand and quite frankly feel you hit it right on, i can very much see what you are saying." -United Kingdom

"Hey thank you so much.. i was really scared about the dream because i didn't know what it meant... but you really helped me to understand the dream.. thank you." -South Africa

"I thank you for helping me through this, this dream really bothered me all day long. The thought ran thru my mind that I am a little scared that it might continue on tonight, but i just brushed that out of my mind because now I know what it means. Thanks again." -
United States

"Thank you so very much for the dream interpretation. Although it almost overlaps with what I had found in it all by myself, you pointed out more elements that merit thorough consideration. Thank you very much for that." -Holland

"Interesting. I had no idea that a silly dream would teach me so much about myself. I will definitely be looking at my dreams more carefully." -Australia
